*The Barn Cards should be printed in a double-sided fashion. Please see Adobe's Support Page for assistance with printing double-sided documents.

Once all components have been printed, cut the Game Pieces, Pig Cards, bills of various denominations, and Barn Cards into their separate, single pieces. For example, the Barn Card pages should be cut into 8 separate cards, the Game Pieces page should be cut into 6 separate pieces, etc.

To make your game pieces stand up as they travel around the board, bend the inner component of a paper clip and tape to the pieces as shown in the figure below.

If you prefer to have the option to reuse the game after it has been printed, you are encouraged to laminate the individual pig cards, money, and checks and balances sheets; you can write on these laminated items using dry erase markers to prolong their use. In addition, laminating the game board, game pieces, and barn cards may also increase the durability of the game.

Once you have printed and cut out these components and prepare your game pieces, you are ready to start the game!
