

Sponsor Feature: The Gift of 30 Years

California Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom

High-Hand Historic Nursery in Loomis, CA April 22, 2016

We gathered at the historic High-Hand Nursery for a special night of celebrating agricultural education. Long-time supporter, Barbara Johnson of Placer County received the 2016 Legacy Award.

Long-time supporter, Barbara Johnson of Placer County received the 2016 Legacy Award.

Fine artist, Kyle Lawson performed live art, creating agriculturally-inspired pieces for guests.

Sixth-grader, Jaden Fontes read his state-winning story and signed autographs.

Guests enjoyed a silent auction, reception and dinner at the beautiful High-Hand Nursery.

Donors were honored with the Apple Award for giving more than $30,000 in our 30-year history.

Placer County FFA members opened the event by leading the Pledge of Allegiance.

Poppy Hills Golf Tournament in Pebble Beach July 28, 2016

Friends game together to golf and celebrate accomplishments in agricultural education. Long-time supporters, Bob Johnson and the Oreggia Family Foundation were honored as Legacy Award recipients.

Golfers were excited to begin their day on the Poppy Hills course.

Golfers took time to pose, as they swung to link agriculture and education.

Friends read along with Jaden Fontes as he shared his winning story, The Incredible Apples.

Guests enjoyed lunch with Legacy Award recipients, Bob Taylor of the Oreggia Family Foundation (front, left) and Bob Johnson (front, right).

Executive Director Judy Culbertson poses with Legacy Award winner, Bob Johnson.

It was a great day of golfing, visiting, and celebrating agricultural education.

Luncheon and Tour of Los Angeles Dodger Stadium

August 30, 2016

Long-time supporters and new friends came together for a Luncheon and Tour of the Los Angeles Dodger Stadium. Dodger's fans, Jim and Neta Hicks were honored as Legacy Award recipients.

Friends and family enjoyed lunch and a special program.

Seventh-grade student, Kristie Tan of Los Angeles County read her honorable mention story, Looney for Uni.

Donors were honored with the Apple Award for giving more than $30,000 in our 30-year history.

Legacy Award recipients, Jim and Neta Hicks posed with Judy Culberston, Executive Director and Kenny Watkins, Chairman of the Board.

Dodger's Stadium tour guide provide an inside-look.