

2026-2027 Imagine this... Illustration Project

The Imagine this... Illustration Project will begin on December 2, 2026 and end January 26, 2027, with an awards ceremony in April 21, 2027.

The objectives of the illustration project include:

ART PROGRAM/ TEACHER:

1. Enhance the education of high school students by providing a hands-on developmental experience to students.
2. Support career goals for students interested in art.
3. Provide an opportunity to build student portfolios.
4. Provide high school students with the opportunity to fulfill a community service requirement.
5. Provide agriculture education to students.
6. Maintain communication with CFAITC.
7. Advise students to help meet deadlines and maintain dedication to the project.
8. Ensure completion of illustration project by January 26, 2027.

ARTWORK:

1. Artwork will accurately illustrate the story in 10-14 scenes, including a title page with author and artist names.
2. Artwork will portray accurate agricultural content. Please portray current agriculture practices and avoid stereotypical images (farmers in overalls, pitchfork-type imagery).
3. Artwork will be created with colored pencils, watercolors, airbrush, or other appropriate media.
4. Artwork is subject to approval by CFAITC.
5. All written and illustrated stories shall become property of CFAITC.

CALIFORNIA FOUNDATION FOR AGRICULTURE IN THE CLASSROOM (CFAITC):

1. CFAITC will provide the stories to be illustrated.
2. CFAITC will monitor the progress of illustrations on a bi-weekly basis.
3. CFAITC will provide $100 per story to the program for purchase of materials & supplies relating to the project.
4. At the completion of project CFAITC will donate $150 to the art program for the completion of each story illustration.
5. CFAITC will publish the names of the artists in the Imagine this... book.
6. CFAITC will provide the art program with the Imagine this... book after completion of the book.

As the art instructor, I am committing my students to the 2025-2026 Imagine this... illustration project, and the expectations as stated above.
