

A new calf was born on a dairy farm. It weighs 70 pounds. You need to take the calf to the calf barn.

A semi truck full of grain has just arrived at your pig farm. You must move the grain from the truck to the silo.

You need to transport 100 bales of hay from the field to your farm. Each bale weighs about 1800 pounds.