

Household food security: Response cards

Cut along the dotted lines. Each card represents roughly 6.25 million U.S. households. If there are more cards than students, distribute the top five cards first; extra cards can be placed on the ground in line with the standing students and moved appropriately to represent the remaining households.

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sometimes true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Sometimes true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Often true 2. Sometimes true 3. True in >2 months 4. Sometimes true 5. Sometimes true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sometimes true 2. Sometimes true 3. True in 1 or 2 months 4. Never true 5. Never true
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Never true 2. Never true 3. Never true 4. Never true 5. Never true