

Building From the Ground Up

1. Who are the members in your community?
  2. What are the occupations for each community member?
  3. What is the new name of your community?
  4. In what country is your community located?
  5. Color your country on the South America Map. Put an X where your community is located.
  6. Determine which three crops your community will grow by using the South America agriculture map. Put a star next to your primary (most popular) crop.
    - a.
    - b.
    - c.
  7. Determine what livestock (cattle, sheep, poultry) you'll raise by using the South America agriculture map.
  8. Briefly describe the first scenario your community received and answer the questions using the space below:
  9. Briefly describe the second scenario your community received and answer the questions using the space below:
  10. Briefly describe the third scenario your community received and answer the questions using the space below:
- 