

Rubric for Project-Based Learning Solution/Product

Team name and product being reviewed: _____ Reviewing team name: _____

Criteria	4 = Exemplary	3 = Adequate	2 = Developing	1 = Inadequate	Comments
Notebook Completeness	The team/company name is on the notebook. The notebook includes a project timeline along with individual names and duties/roles that have been assigned. A diagram/concept map/flowchart or other images related to development or manufacturing have been documented. Each team member has added log information.	The team/company is missing one of the following: The team/company name is on the notebook. The notebook project timeline along with individual names and duties/roles that have been assigned. A diagram/concept map/flowchart or other images documenting the project development or manufacturing. One or more team members log information.	Approximately 50% of what is required in the notebook has been included.	Less than 25% of what has been required in the notebook has been included.
Notebook Written Communication	The notebook is easy to read and easy to follow. The sentences are complete, spelling and punctuation is accurate. There are no grammatical errors.	The notebook is easy to read and easy to follow. The sentences are complete, but there are a few spelling, punctuation and grammatical errors.	The notebook is messy and difficult to follow. The sentences are complete, but there are a few spelling, punctuation and grammatical errors.	The notebook is messy and difficult to follow. The sentences are incomplete, and there are numerous spelling, punctuation and grammatical errors.
Solution addresses the identified problem	The solution/product addresses the identified problem, is easy to use, creative, is cost effective, easy to make, and has the potential to be sold.	The solution/product addresses the identified problem, is easy to use, is cost effective, but difficult to make, and has limited potential for sales.	The solution/product addresses the identified problem, but is not cost effective, and difficult to make.	The solution/product does not address the identified problem.	