

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
Our chemical fertilizers mask the problem of degraded soils.

09:15
”

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
Modern agriculture was not designed for the betterment of the soil.

09:23

”

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
Glyphosate, a chemical that is so over sprayed that it has found its way into our drinking water.

09:45
”

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
These chemicals that were considered dangerous to begin with are now being used at rates that would have been inconceivable 20 years ago.

09:58

”

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
Most of the agricultural industry’s pesticides and herbicides transfer directly through breastmilk to babies.

10:31
”

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
Since chemical agriculture ramped up in the 1970s, we have lost 1/3 of the Earth's topsoil.

12:03
”

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“Cows can be good. That is one of the most controversial statements of mankind.”
29:46”

“Cattle are the most vilified animal in the world.”
20:50”

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“What is something we buy every day at the grocery store that instead of waiting for it to be shipped around the world to me... what can I put in my own backyard and grow myself?”

23:25

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
Regenerative agriculture grows more food per acre. It is scalable to our entire agricultural system.

” 23:45

Name: _____

Kiss the Ground

Wait, Say That Again!

Consider the direct quote(s) below from the film. Consider the statement from multiple perspectives and perform additional research to determine its truth. Look at more than one perspective on the topic and identify potential biases or misconceptions it could create.

“
If we eat meat we need to eat meat
that comes from pasture-raised,
grass-fed, humanely killed animals.

37:42
”