CHS Foundation is once again offering scholarships to help pre-kindergarten through 12th grade teachers attend the 2021 National Agriculture in the Classroom National Conference 'Fields of Dreams' scheduled for June 29-July 1 at the Iowa Events Center in Des Moines, Iowa.

CHS Foundation is offering 50 scholarships this year. The scholarship covers early registration to the conference of $435. Teachers are responsible for covering their other travel costs to attend the conference. To apply for a scholarship, teachers must fill out an application explaining how attending the conference will help them advance agricultural literacy in their classrooms. Eligible applicants are PreK-12 teachers who are employed by a school district or private school.

To apply, please visit the online application at Grants and Scholarships \(agclassroom.org\). The deadline for applications is April 1.
