

The City Guy's Farm Fun True or False Question Cards

1. New Jersey is home to the largest cultivated blueberry farm in the world. (3)
2. New Jersey farmers produce over 70 varieties of fruits and vegetables. (2)
3. Farmers specialize in producing large harvests of just a few crops. (1)
4. About one half of New Jersey is farmland. (3)
5. New Jersey is one of the top five producers of potatoes in the nation. (2)
6. Farmers need to know about science and technology, as well as business and marketing. (1)
7. There are 8,000 farms in New Jersey. (3)
8. Pasteurization means that the milk is frozen to kill germs. (2)
9. The spots on a Holstein cow are like a person's fingerprints. (1)
10. A cow weighs about 500 pounds. (3)
11. New Jersey farmers grow 1/30 of the world's supply of cranberries. (2)
12. It takes cranberry vines about 3 to 4 years to grow after a bog is planted. (1)

13. Today, cranberries are harvested with a scoop. (3)

19. A plant scientist helps farmers sell their crops. (3)

14. Millions of bees are needed to pollinate the cranberry bogs. (2)

20. Stress tests on seeds are like athletic competitions for people. (2)

15. Frost can help your cranberries grow. (1)

21. An entomologist is a scientist who studies weather. (1)

16. Irrigation systems help when there is too much rain. (3)

22. Farmers must work with nature, even when nature works against them. (3)

17. The roots, stem, and leaves break out of the seed during germination. (1)

23. Many careers in today's world are related to agriculture. (2)

18. The New Jersey Department of Agriculture tests seeds for farmers. (1)

24. Farming is more a way of life than a business for New Jersey farmers. (1)

25. Practical problems in agriculture can often be solved by using technology. (3)

26. There is more to agriculture than growing crops and raising animals. (2)