

Garden Books for Little Ones: PreK-1

Up, Down, and Around

by Katherine Ayres

This fun garden book shows little ones how different vegetables grow: corn grows up, carrots grow down, and cucumbers climb around and around. Your students will love doing hand motions as they recite the text with you.

Lunch

by Denise Fleming

This simple book about colors follows a hungry mouse as he eats an assortment of vegetables such as a crisp white turnip, a tasty orange carrot, and sweet yellow corn.

If You Plant a Seed

By Kadir Nelson

This book, with its gorgeous, bold pictures, tells the story of a how a rabbit and a mouse plant a vegetable garden, and how sharing is often the easiest path to choose. The pictures are so compelling you can just show them to little ones, and they will tell the story to you.

Pick a Circle, Gather Squares

A Fall Harvest of Shapes

by Felicia Sanzari Chernesky

A trip to the pumpkin farm on a lovely October day turns into a hunt for shapes: oval eggs, square hay bales, diamond kites, and hexagon honeycombs. Read the book and do conduct your own hunt for shapes around the garden.

Cheers for a Dozen Ears

A Summer Crop of Counting

By Felicia Sanzari Chernesky

The children in this book use fun rhymes to count the fruits and vegetables their mother buys at the farm stand.
