

Shirley Temple Surprise Bowl

Ingredients

- 4 cups Sprite Soda
- 1 can of Sweetened Condensed Milk
- 1 cup of Whole Milk
- 1 10 oz jar of Maraschino Cherries
- Cherry Grenadine
- 1 1/3 cups white sugar

Materials

- Large Sized Bowl
- XL Ziploc Bag
- Blender
- Airtight Container

Recipe

- Pour 4 cups of cold sprite into a bowl. The ice cream will freeze much faster if the soda is cold.
- Add in a can of sweetened condensed milk.
- Add in one cup of whole milk
- Pour mixture into a ziploc bag
- Then set it in the freezer laying flat and let it freeze
- Once frozen remove from freezer and then place chunks into a blender and then blend until completely smooth, after putting chunks in blender add in cherries
- Pour into an airtight container and freeze until ready to serve

Shirley Temple Surprise Bowl

Ingredients

- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup light corn syrup
- $\frac{1}{3}$ cup water
- Cherry Grenadine
- $1 \frac{1}{3}$ cups white sugar

Materials

- 1 Thick Latex Balloon
- Candy Thermometer
- Saucepan

Bowl:

- Fill the balloon with water, let out any extra air and knot it
- In a saucepan combine the corn syrup, sugar, and water and whisk together
- Start the stove on medium-high heat, then continue to stir the mixture with a metal spoon and check the temperature every 2-3 minutes
- At 300-305 degrees F, add in a few drops of cherry grenadine and stir in with a toothpick
- Next, pour the hot syrup on the balloon and let it sit for 20-30 minutes to cool
- Then cut the top of the balloon and let the water pour out
