

ATTORNEY

ATTORNEY

<http://www.fusiongrant.org/educational.php>

Description:

Attorneys represent clients in criminal and civil litigation and other legal proceedings, draw up legal documents, and manage or advise clients on legal transactions. Lawyers often specialize in a specific branch of law such as criminal, civil, environmental, probate, or international law.

Median Wage (as of 2005):

$98,930

Level of Education:

B.S. (required), M.S., Ph.D., M.D., or J.D. (preferred)

Job Outlook (through 2014):

9-17% increase in number of jobs

Examples of Colleges & Affiliated Programs:

Cornell University – Industrial and Labor Relations; Cornell Law School

Syracuse University – Pre-law Studies

Columbia University (Barnard College) – Political Science

Alfred State (SUNY) – Political Science

Finger Lakes Community College (FLCC) – Criminal Justice

Le Moyne College – Political Science

Employers:

Private Sector – Burke & Burke; Carrie A. Watkins, Attorney at Law; Sugarman Law Firm, LLP; Harter, Secrest, & Emery, LLP; Scott R. Tirrell, Esq.; Kenyon & Kenyon, LLP

Federal, State and Local Governments – Office of State Attorney General; United States Department of Justice; United States Department of the Treasury; United States Department of Defense; Office of the General Counsel; New York State and United States Departments of Environmental Conservation; New York State Department of Agriculture & Markets; United States Department of Homeland Security

High School/College Courses to Take:

English

Public Speaking

Government, History

Philosophy

Economics, Mathematics

Related Professions:

Law Clerk

Judge

Paralegal

Title Examiner

Cornell University