

FOOD AND BEVERAGE SERVERS

FOOD AND BEVERAGE SERVERS

Description:

Food and beverage workers also known as waiters, bartenders, hosts, dining room or cafeteria attendants, or counter attendants must engage customers, take orders for and serve food, answer questions, and clean the facilities. Tasks vary depending on the nature of the job and the establishment.

Median Wage (as of 2006):

Entry Level Workers – $6.79/hr.
Experienced Workers - $10.10/hr.

Level of Education:

On-the-job training; High School Diploma (required in some positions)

Job Outlook (through 2016):

13% increase in number of jobs

Employers:

Restaurants & Bars – Nick Tahou Hots; Belhurst, Moosewood Restaurant; The Distillery, L'Adour Restaurant Francais; Sodexho Creative Services; Metromedia Steakhouses Company LP.; Brinker International; Oldemark LLC.; Dinosaur BBQ; Olive Garden
Hotels – Doubletree Inn; Hampton Inn; InterContinental Hotel Group
Retailers – Wegmans Food Markets; Tops Friendly Markets; Whole Foods Market

Related Professions:

Flight Attendant
Service Workers
Retail Salespersons

Cornell University