

My favorite food is pizza from food found around New York State. To make pizza dough, you need wheat, an egg, water, salt and yeast. You can find wheat growing in the fields and an egg from chickens on a local farm. For the top of the pizza you get tomatoes grown on vines and cheese from cows raised locally.

