

A Farmer Named Ken

There once was a farmer named Ken

He had many cows in the pen

He brought them some water,

he brought them some hay, and then to make sure they don't run away,

He closes the gate and locks it up tight

Now Ken is ready to sleep for the night