

I am a Pumpkin. By: Magnolia
Wilson

I am a pumpkin and big.

I wonder if I am the biggest pumpkin in the world.

I hear the other pumpkins getting picked.

I see all the pumpkins going home with someone.

I want to be carved for Halloween.

I am a pumpkin and big.

I pretend everyone wants to be me.

I feel the carvers going into me.

I touch the stairs when people are trick-or-treating.

I worry that I will rot.

I cry if no one takes me home.

I am a pumpkin and big.

I understand I won't be perfect.

I say we will all go home with someone.

I dream of being the best pumpkin ever!

I try to keep my best friends by my side.

I hope someone will take me home

I am a pumpkin and big
