

Dirty Little Secrets

Presented by Johnnie Keel, 3rd-5th grade Math and Gifted at Truman Elementary School in Norman and former AITC Teacher of the Year and National Excellence in Teaching Agriculture Award Winner, and Lori Newmark, K-6th grade STEAM teacher at Moore Public Schools

Wednesday July 22 Session 2 PM 2:30-3:20

and

Thursday July 23 Session 3 PM 3:30-4:20

ELEMENTARY/MIDDLE SCHOOL FOCUS

Dirty Little Secrets: Come get the scoop about soil with fun facts, activities, and lessons you can share with your students in the classroom or through digital learning. Leave knowing how to create an erosion experiment, make soil crayons or paint, & create edible soil layering. Use forensics when teaching about soil and assess learning with an Escape Room activity. STEAM up your lessons with these soil activities that your students can really DIG into in class or online.
