

DID YOU KNOW?

Facts About Legumes

During the Civil War, soybeans were used in place of coffee because real coffee was scarce.

One acre of soybeans can produce 82,368 crayons.

In Oklahoma we grow several varieties of legumes - some in our gardens, some in our fields, some to feed our animals and some to feed ourselves.

The average peanut farm is 100 acres.

A mature peanut plant produces about 40 pods that then grow into peanuts.

Tofu is the curd of soymilk.

Soy ink is used to print newspapers and textbooks.

98% of U.S. soy meal goes to feed pigs, chickens and cows.

2 peanut farmers have been elected president of the USA - Thomas Jefferson and Jimmy Carter.

FARM CREDIT
ASSOCIATIONS OF OKLAHOMA

okPORK
Oklahoma Pork Council

Oklahoma Farm Bureau
Women's Leadership Committee