

Utah Agricultural Products Questions

1. What geographic feature is found where the largest variety of crops are grown? What makes these areas well suited for agriculture?
2. Why do you think hay is produced in most counties in Utah?
3. Why do you think there are more beef cows than dairy cows in Utah?
4. Find the general area of your school on the map. Is your school in a rural or urban area? Do you see examples of agriculture on your way to and from school?
5. Identify the major crops in your county. Do you have any personal experience with those crops?
6. Compare and contrast the crops that are grown in the northern part of the state to the crops that are grown in the southern part of the state. What accounts for these differences?
7. Where is the greatest diversity of crops grown? Where do most people in Utah live? What kinds of problems occur when people like to live in the same areas that are good for farming?