

Tobacco

Fact Sheet and Talking Points

- Tobacco is a very labor intensive crop that requires many workers for harvesting since it is often done by hand.
- Once the large leaves are picked from the plant, they will be hung to dry and cure. Afterwards, they will be baled and shipped to the purchaser.
- The “Tobacco Belt” is considered to be along the Virginia - North Carolina line.