

Washington Ag in the Classroom promotes agricultural literacy.

Every person should know and understand where their food and water come from.

Sponsor levels (recognition is cumulative and will include everything listed above each level):

Level 1 - Up to $100+ 1 time per year listed as a supporter in the teacher guide of our Ag@School magazine

Level 2 - $250+ plus listed as a sponsor on our website, social media and printed material acknowledgement

Level 3 - $500+ plus a link to your website on our website

Level 4 - $1000+ plus your logo on our website

Level 5 - $2500+ plus invitation to sponsor an article within an issue of the magazine with your logo by the article

Level 6 - $5000+ plus be featured in the career corner and company highlight in an issue of Ag@School

Level 7 - $7500+ plus the opportunity to sponsor a commodity page, special project or concept poster that would be a stand-alone feature

We have editorial control over our publications but welcome input and content from our sponsors

A few statistics:

Ag@School is published 3 times per year. Our fall issue is a general view of Washington Agriculture. Our winter issue focuses on technology and our spring issue focuses on stewardship.

Ag@School currently services around 350 educators and 15,000 students within Washington

Outreach partnerships – working with various partners within communities to do Ag literacy projects ranging from 2nd to 5th grade.

Washington Ag In the Classroom (WAIC) is funded totally by donations from individuals, organizations, and business entities interested in Agricultural Literacy.

Washington Ag In the Classroom needs your support in developing agriculturally literate students and educators!